2019 INTERNATIONAL DELEGATION PROGRAM

Every year, thousands of attendees gather for the Greenbuild International Conference and Expo. In an industry projected to contribute hundreds of billions of dollars to the economy each year, Greenbuild is the largest conference and expo dedicated to green building. In 2019, Greenbuild is expected to draw 500 exhibiting companies and 10,000 building & design professionals from across the globe.

The Greenbuild International Delegation Program was established to help international attendees get the most out of their Greenbuild experience. From special registration prices and exposure to the innovative products on display in the exhibit hall, to inspirational sessions on the latest advances in the international green building industry, this program is essential for international green building professionals, and those wanting to learn more about the industry.

Greenbuild will take place at the Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta, GA, November 19 - 22. For more information on the show please visit greenbuildexpo.com.
